

Announcement to the world-wide optics community

The OSA Board of Editors welcomes nominations for the following editor positions:

Editor in Chief, Journal of the Optical Society of America B

Term to begin January 1, 2013 and end December 31, 2015

Editor in Chief, Optics Express

Term to begin January 1, 2013 and end December 31, 2015

Qualifications for these positions include but are not limited to the following:

- The individual must be well known, recognized and respected for scientific achievement within the community. A record of publication in recognized journals is essential.
- The individual must have current or prior editorial experience with reviewer selection and decision making responsibilities. OSA editor experience is preferred.
- The individual must possess sufficient breadth and scope within the broad topic areas covered by the journal to provide strategic vision and leadership for the entire journal.
- The individual must be known for objectivity and decision-making abilities. A history of review activity for OSA journals is beneficial.
- The individual must be an OSA member. The editor is also expected to attend two OSA Board of Editors meetings each year.

Nominations in the form of a cover letter summarizing the nominee's qualifications should be sent to Kelly Cohen at kcohen@osa.org. They must be received by June 30, 2012. The nominating committee will request curriculum vitae in electronic format. For self-nominations, please explain your interest in the position within the cover letter.

Thank you for your assistance in filling these important positions.
